Case No. 20 OC 001631B
Dept. I

EX-PARTE MOTION FOR LEAVE TO
IMMEDIATELY SET DEPOSITIONS
ON SHORTENED NOTICE AND
EXCEED THE TEN DEPOSITION
LIMIT PROSCRIBED IN NRCP
30(a)(2)(A)(i)

25 COMES NOW Jesse Law, Michael McDonald, James DeGraffenreid III,
26 Durward James Hindle III, Eileen Rice and Shawn Meehan, as candidates for 27 presidential electors on behalf of Donald J. Trump (collectively "Contestants"), by and 28

1 their attorney of record Shana D. Weir, Esq. and Jesse R. Binnall, Esq. (pro hac vice
2 application forthcoming), and hereby submit this Ex-Parte Motion for Leave to
3 Immediately Set Depositions on Shortened Notice and Exceed the Ten Deposition
4 Limit Proscribed in NRCP 30(a)(2)(A)(i) (“Motion”). Good cause exists to grant
5 Contestants the relief sought herein in light of the shortened and expedited nature of 6 election contest proceedings pursuant to NRS 293.410, and Contestants consequent
7 inability to comply with the notice requirements set forth in NRCP 30(b)(1) or NRCP
8 45(a)(4)(A). Pursuant to Local Rule 3.19, counsel for Contestants provided notice of 9 the instant Motion to counsel for Defendants on November 20, 2020. See Exhibit A
10 attached to the Declaration of Shana D. Weir, filed herewith. This Motion is based
11 upon the pleadings and papers on file with the Court and any argument entertained
12 by the Court.

13 I. INTRODUCTION

14 As this Court is aware, Contestants have an extremely limited timeframe to 15 present evidence to this Court to challenge the results of the 2020 Presidential 16 Election (the “Election”). The trial must be completed in time to allow review by the 17 Nevada Supreme Court prior to the December 8, 2020 Federal statutory deadline (3 18 U.S. Code Section 5) for Nevada to settle all election contests and determine its 19 electors, ahead of the December 14, 2020 deadline for Nevada’s six (6) electors to 20 attend the United States Electoral College.

21 As a result, the relief requested herein is necessary to ensure that Contestants
22 have a full and fair opportunity to take all necessary depositions and prepare for trial.
23 Contestants respectfully request that this Court allow Contestants to: (1) immediately
24 notice depositions on forty-eight hours’ notice; and (2) exceed the ten deposition limit
25 set forth in NRCP 30(a)(2)(A)(i).

26 II. LEGAL STANDARD

27 Separate and apart from the rules of civil procedure, this Court has the inherent 28 authority to manage the judicial process so as to achieve the fair, orderly, and

1 expeditious disposition of cases. See 136 Nev. Adv. Op. 72 (quoting Chambers v.
2 NASCO, Inc. 501 U.S. 32, 43, 111 S. Ct. 2123, 115 L. Ed.2d 27 (1991); Silvestri v. Gen.
3 Motors Corp., 271 F.3d 583, 590 (4th Cir. 2001). Among other things, this Court’s
4 authority encompasses powers “reasonable and necessary” for the administration of
5 court procedure and management of judicial affairs. Halverson v. Hardcastle, 123
6 Nev. 234, 261, 163 P.3d 428, 440 (2007) (quoting Borger v. Dist. Ct., 120 Nev. 1021, 7 1029, 102 P.3d 600 (2004)).

8 As a result, this Court has the inherent authority to grant Contestants the relief
9 sought herein.

10 III. CONTESTANTS SHOULD BE GIVEN RELIEF FROM THE NOTICE
11 REQUIREMENTS SET FORTH IN NRCP 30(b)(1) OR NRCP 45(a)(4)(A) IN
12 LIGHT OF THE EXPEDITED NATURE OF ELECTION CONTEST
13 PROCEEDINGS AND THE PENDING STATUTORY DEADLINES.

14 Good cause exists to grant Contestants the relief sought herein given the 15 extremely limited timeframe Contestants have to conduct discovery and present
16 evidence to the Court in support of their claims. Because election contests are 17 expedited statutory proceedings that do not comport with traditional litigation
18 timelines, Contestants should be given relief from complying with the standard notice
19 requirements set forth in NRCP 30(b)(1) or NRCP 45(a)(4)(A).

20 The Court’s November 19, 2020 Order To Set Hearing and For Service (the 21 “Order”) set an initial hearing for December 1, 2020. NRCP 30(b)(1) requires “a party
22 who wants to depose a person by oral questions” to provide “not less than 14 days’
23 written notice to every other party.” Even if Contestants are allowed to take 24 depositions following the December 1, 2020 hearing, it will be an impossibility to 25 depose witnesses with statutory notice under NRCP 30(b)(1) or NRCP 45(a)(4)(A)
26 before December 8, 2020.

27 Similarly, NRCP 45(a)(4)(A) requires a subpoena that commands the 28 production of documents to be served on all parties at least 7 days before it is served

1 on the person to whom it is directed. If Contestants are forced to wait until December
2 1, 2020 to provide the requisite 7-day notice to all parties, then Contestants could not
3 even serve the subpoena on the person to whom it was directed until after December
4 8, 2020.

5 Forcing Contestants to wait until December 1, 2020 to notice depositions would
6 be unduly prejudicial and contrary to interests of justice and fairness. Given the 7 gravamen of the issues at stake in this action, and the limited days Contestants have
8 to gather and present evidence to the Court, Contestants would face irreparable harm
9 if they were forced to wait until December 1, 2020 to conduct discovery. As the party
10 bearing the burden of proof, Contestants should be afforded a full a fair opportunity
11 to conduct discovery and present evidence in support of their claims. This inherently
12 includes taking all necessary depositions as soon as possible.

13 IV. CONTESTANTS SHOULD BE GIVEN LEAVE TO TAKE MORE THAN TEN
14 DEPOSITIONS IN THIS ACTION.

15 NRCP 30(a)(2)(A)(i) requires a party to obtain leave of court if taking a
16 deposition would “result in more than 10 depositions being taken.” Contestants should
17 be given leave to exceed the ten deposition limit given the plain language of NRS
18 293.415 that not only allows Contestants to “take the deposition of any witness” but 19 states that “the matter shall be tried and submitted so far as may be possible upon 20 depositions.” The statute underscores the importance of deposition testimony.
21 Contestants should be allowed to “take the deposition of any witness” they deem
22 necessary and should not be constrained by the ten deposition limit set forth NRCP
23 30(a)(2)(A)(i).

24 For the reasons set forth herein, Contestants respectfully request that the 25 Court allow them to: (1) immediately notice depositions on forty-eight hours’ notice;
26 and (2) exceed the ten deposition limit set forth in NRCP 30(a)(2)(A)(i).
