MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF PETITION TO INTERVENE

Proposed Intervenor Defendant, the DNC Services Corp./Democratic National Committee (“DNC”), by and through its undersigned counsel, respectfully submits this memorandum of law in support of its Petition to Intervene as Defendant in the above-captioned proceeding pursuant to Rule 2327 of the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure.

In addition to this Petition and Memorandum of Law in support of intervention, the DNC submits its Proposed Answer In Opposition to Petitioners’ Petition for Review.

REASONS FOR PROPOSED INTERVENORS’ APPLICATION

1. Pursuant to Pennsylvania Rule of Procedure 2327, a non-party may seek leave to intervene by filing an application with the court.

2. The DNC seeks to intervene pursuant to Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure 2327(4), which states, in pertinent part:

At any time during the pendency of an action, a person not a party thereto shall be permitted to intervene therein, subject to these rules if . . .

(4) the determination of such action may affect any legally enforceable interest of such person whether or not such person may be bound by a judgment in the action.

Pa.R.C.P. 2327.

3. The DNC meets the requirements for intervention under Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure 2327(4).

4. The DNC is a national committee, as that term is defined by and used in 52 U.S.C. § 30101, dedicated to electing local, state, and national candidates of the Democratic Party to public office throughout the United States including in Pennsylvania. The DNC has members and constituents across the Commonwealth, including eligible voters who submitted absentee and mail-in ballots in the November 3 election in Montgomery County. As such, the DNC has a particular and distinct interest in Pennsylvania's election processes, and specifically in the adjudication of mail-in and absentee ballots in Montgomery County.

5. Petitioners ask this Court to throw out lawfully cast mail-in and absentee ballots. Many of those ballots were undoubtedly cast by DNC's member voters and were cast in favor of DNC's member candidates.

6. The DNC has a concrete and protectible interest in protecting its voters from having their ballots rejected. The relief requested by Petitioners will result in Democratic voters being disenfranchised and could harm the electoral prospects of Democratic candidates. As such, the DNC and its members maintain a powerful and legally enforceable interest in Pennsylvania's election processes that is implicated by this lawsuit.

7. The named Defendant, Montgomery County Board of Elections (the "County Board"), does not adequately represent the DNC's interests. The County Board's stake in this lawsuit is defined solely by its statutory duties to conduct elections, but the DNC's interest in this litigation is defined by its interest in protecting its voters and its candidate's electoral prospects. Where, as here, one of the original parties to the suit is a government entity like the County Board, whose positions "are necessarily colored by its view of the public welfare rather than the more parochial views of a proposed intervenor whose interest is personal to it," intervention is appropriate. See, e.g., Kleissler v. U.S. Forrest Serv., 157 F.3d 964, 972 (3d Cir. 1998) (citing Conservation Law Found. of New England v. Mosbacher, 966 F.2d 39, 44 (1st Cir. 1992) and Mausolf v. Babbitt, 85 F.3d 1295, 1303 (8th Cir. 1996)).

8. For these reasons, courts routinely find that political party committees like the DNC should be granted intervention in cases where plaintiffs seek to make it harder to vote or harder to have that vote counted. E.g. Parnell v. Allegheny Board of Elections, No. 20-cv-01570 (W.D. Pa. Oct. 22, 2020), ECF No. 34 (granting intervention to Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee in lawsuit regarding processing of ballots); Donald J. Trump for President v. Bullock, No. 20-cv-66 (D. Mon. Sept. 08, 2020), ECF No. 35 (granting Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee, Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee, and Montana Democratic Party intervention in lawsuit by four Republican party entities); Donald J. Trump for President, Inc., No. 20-cv-10753, 2020 WL 5229209, at *1 (D. N.J. Sept. 01, 2020) (granting Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee intervention in lawsuit by Republican candidate and party entities); Cook County Republican Party v. Pritzker, No. 20-cv-4676 (N.D. Ill. Aug. 28, 2020) (granting Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee intervention in lawsuit by Republican party entity); Issa v. Newsom, No. 20-cv-01044, 2020 WL 3074351, at *3 (E.D. Cal. June 10, 2020) (granting Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee and California Democratic Party intervention in lawsuit by Republican congressional candidate); Paher v. Cegavske, No. 20-cv-00243, 2020 WL 2042365, at *4 (D. Nev. April 28, 2020) (granting Democratic National Committee and other Democratic Party entities intervention in election law case brought by conservative interest group).

9. The DNC has promptly filed its Petition to Intervene and its intervention will neither delay the resolution of this matter nor prejudice any party.

10. Attached to the Petition is Proposed Intervenors' Answer in Opposition to Petitioner's request for relief.

Petitioners,

v.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY BOARD OF ELECTIONS,

Defendant,

No. 2020-18680

Proposed Answer

DNC SERVICES CORP. / DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEE,

Proposed Intervenor-
Defendant

Intervenor-Defendant Democratic National Committee (“DNC”), by and through its attorneys, submits the following Answer to Plaintiffs’ Petition for Review of Decision by the Montgomery County Board of Elections. Intervenor responds to the allegations in the Petition as follows:

1. Paragraph 1 contains legal conclusions to which no response is required.
2. Intervenor admits that Petitioner Donald J. Trump for President is the principal committee and that President Trump is the Republican candidate for office of the President of the United States in the November 3, 2020 general election. All other assertions in paragraph 2 are legal conclusions to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Intervenor denies the allegations.
3. Intervenor admits that Petitioner Republican National Committee is a national political committee that leads the Republican Party of the United States, and that the Republican National Committee works to elect Republican candidates throughout the United States. Intervenor is without sufficient information or knowledge with which to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations in Paragraph 3 regarding the number of nationally registered Republicans and therefore denies that allegation. All other assertions in paragraph 3 are legal conclusions to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Intervenor denies the allegations.
4. Intervenor admit that Heather Heidelbaugh is the Republican Candidate for the office of Attorney General of Pennsylvania. All other assertions in paragraph 4 are legal conclusions to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Intervenor denies the allegations.

5. Intervenor admits that Stacey L. Garrity is the Republican candidate for the office of Treasurer of Pennsylvania. All other assertions in paragraph 5 are legal conclusions to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Intervenor denies the allegations.

6. Intervenor admits that Daniel Wissert is the Republican candidate to represent District 70 in the Pennsylvania House of Representatives. All other assertions in paragraph 6 are legal conclusions to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Intervenor denies the allegations.

7. Intervenor admits the allegations in paragraph 7.

8. Paragraph 8 contains legal conclusions to which no response is required.

9. Paragraph 9 contains legal conclusions to which no response is required.

10. Paragraph 10 contains mere characterizations, legal contentions, and conclusions to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Intervenor denies the allegations.

11. Paragraph 11 contains mere characterizations, legal contentions, and conclusions to which no response is required.

12. Paragraph 12 contains mere characterizations, legal contentions, and conclusions to which no response is required.

13. Intervenor admits the allegations in paragraph 13.

14. Intervenor is without sufficient information or knowledge with which to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations in Paragraph 14 and therefore denies the allegations.

15. Paragraph 15 contains mere characterizations, legal contentions, and conclusions to which no response is required.

16. Paragraph 16 contains mere characterizations, legal contentions, and conclusions to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Intervenor denies the allegations.

17. Paragraph 17 purports to quote from the cited statute, which speaks for itself, and no response is required.

18. Paragraph 18 purports to quote from the cited statute, which speaks for itself, and no response is required.

19. Paragraph 19 contains mere characterizations, legal contentions, and conclusions to which no response is required.

20. Paragraph 20 contains mere characterizations, legal contentions, and conclusions to which no response is required.

21. Paragraph 21 contains mere characterizations, legal contentions, and conclusions to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Intervenor denies the allegations.

22. Intervenor is without sufficient information or knowledge with which to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations in Paragraph 22 and therefore denies the allegations.

23. Intervenor is without sufficient information or knowledge with which to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations in Paragraph 23 and therefore denies the allegations.

24. Paragraph 24 contains mere characterizations, legal contentions, and conclusions to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Intervenor denies the allegations.

25. Paragraph 25 contains mere characterizations, legal contentions, and conclusions to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Intervenor denies the allegations.

26. Paragraph 26 contains mere characterizations, legal contentions, and conclusions to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Intervenor denies the allegations.

27. Paragraph 27 contains mere characterizations, legal contentions, and conclusions to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Intervenor denies the allegations.

28. Paragraph 28 contains mere characterizations, legal contentions, and conclusions to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Intervenor denies the allegations.

Intervenor denies that Petitioners are entitled to any relief.
