117TH CONGRESS 1ST SESSION

Impeaching Donald John Trump, President of the United States, for high crimes and misdemeanors.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Mr. CICILLINE (for himself, Mr. TED LIEU of California, Mr. RASKIN, Mr. NADLER, and [see ATTACHED LIST of cosponsors]) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on

RESOLUTION

Impeaching Donald John Trump, President of the United States, for high crimes and misdemeanors.

Resolved, That Donald John Trump, President of the United States, is impeached for high crimes and mis demeanors and that the following article of impeachment be exhibited to the United States Senate:

5 Article of impeachment exhibited by the House of 6 Representatives of the United States of America in the 7 name of itself and of the people of the United States of 8 America, against Donald John Trump, President of the United States of America, in maintenance and support of its impeachment against him for high crimes and mis demeanors.

ARTICLE I: INCITEMENT OF INSURRECTION

5 The Constitution provides that the House of Representatives "shall have the sole Power of Impeachment" 6 7 and that the President "shall be removed from Office on Impeachment for, and Conviction of, Treason, Bribery, or 8 9 other high Crimes and Misdemeanors". Further, section 10 3 of the 14th Amendment to the Constitution prohibits any person who has "engaged in insurrection or rebellion 11 against" the United States from "hold[ing] any office . . . 12 under the United States". In his conduct while President 13 14 of the United States—and in violation of his constitutional 15 oath faithfully to execute the office of President of the 16 United States and, to the best of his ability, preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution of the United States, 17 18 and in violation of his constitutional duty to take care that the laws be faithfully executed—Donald John Trump en-19 20 gaged in high Crimes and Misdemeanors by inciting vio-21 lence against the Government of the United States, in 22 that:

On January 6, 2021, pursuant to the 12th Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, the Vice President of the United States, the House of Representatives, and the Senate met at the United States Capitol

1 for a Joint Session of Congress to count the votes of the 2 Electoral College. In the months preceding the Joint Ses-3 sion, President Trump repeatedly issued false statements asserting that the Presidential election results were the 4 5 product of widespread fraud and should not be accepted by the American people or certified by State or Federal 6 officials. Shortly before the Joint Session commenced, 7 8 President Trump addressed a crowd at the Ellipse in 9 Washington, DC. There, he reiterated false claims that 10 "we won this election, and we won it by a landslide". He 11 also willfully made statements that, in context, encour-12 aged—and foreseeably resulted in—lawless action at the 13 Capitol, such as: "if you don't fight like hell you're not going to have a country anymore". Thus incited by Presi-14 15 dent Trump, members of the crowd he had addressed, in an attempt to, among other objectives, interfere with the 16 17 Joint Session's solemn constitutional duty to certify the results of the 2020 Presidential election, unlawfully 18 19 breached and vandalized the Capitol, injured and killed law enforcement personnel, menaced Members of Con-20 21 gress, the Vice President, and Congressional personnel, 22 and engaged in other violent, deadly, destructive, and sedi-23 tious acts.

24 President Trump's conduct on January 6, 2021, fol-25 lowed his prior efforts to subvert and obstruct the certification of the results of the 2020 Presidential election.

 Those prior efforts included a phone call on January 2, 2021, during which President Trump urged the secretary of state of Georgia, Brad Raffensperger, to "find" enough votes to overturn the Georgia Presidential election results and threatened Secretary Raffensperger if he failed to do so.

8 In all this, President Trump gravely endangered the 9 security of the United States and its institutions of Gov-10 ernment. He threatened the integrity of the democratic 11 system, interfered with the peaceful transition of power, 12 and imperiled a coequal branch of Government. He there-13 by betrayed his trust as President, to the manifest injury 14 of the people of the United States.

15 Wherefore, Donald John Trump, by such conduct, has demonstrated that he will remain a threat to national 16 17 security, democracy, and the Constitution if allowed to remain in office, and has acted in a manner grossly incom-18 19 patible with self-governance and the rule of law. Donald 20 John Trump thus warrants impeachment and trial, re-21 moval from office, and disgualification to hold and enjoy 22 any office of honor, trust, or profit under the United 23 States.
