Patriots, stay calm. The Trump campaign anticipated a massive legal battle surrounding this election and have been preparing for it the entire time.

This is a surprise to no one. We always knew this would be the battle of our lifetimes and POTUS prepared well!

Exit polling shows that President Trump did incredibly well among black male voters and performed decently with black female voters. Far better than in 2016 with both groups. How then is his margin the same as 2016 in Philadelphia? Seems odd.

"It should not be a partisan issue to ensure that Colorado elections are free, fair, and secure from fraud. It is our duty as elected representatives of the people to put to rest any doubt the public may have concerning the integrity of our elections. Legitimate questions have been raised by our constituents across the state and the Legislative Audit Committee will act to address those questions even when a ruling majority refuses to do so," said Rep. FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Due to increasing calls from constituents across the state to perform an audit of Colorado's election systems, and the recent request denial of lawmakers seeking transparency through a special committee on election integrity, the Legislative Audit Committee will hold a special hearing next week to hear testimony and learn from expert witnesses regarding the integrity of Colorado's election processes during the 2020 General Election, and related concerns surrounding Dominion Voting Systems.

Background:

While previous problems such as ballot harvesting have plagued Colorado for several years, new concerns surrounding our election process became more pronounced when voter registration postcards from the Secretary of State's office were intentionally sent to ineligible individuals.

This incident led to an official complaint and request for investigation to the U.S. Department of Justice and Federal Election Commission. Additionally, Colorado is now mired in a lawsuit alleging that the state's voter rolls are outdated and in violation of the National Voter Registration Act of 1993.

Earlier this week, a group of state Representatives called for election transparency through the formation of a special committee on election integrity to investigate weaknesses in our election process and to help restore confidence to voters.

The request was not only the result of the serious questions surrounding ballot harvesting, improperly distributed registration postcards, and outdated voter rolls, but was also the result of the growing lack of confidence in the use of Dominion Voting Systems in Colorado elections.

Solution:

Legitimate concerns have been raised in Colorado and across the country about the integrity of our elections, and the Legislative Audit Committee will gather to listen to the facts and, if necessary, allow

We deserve secure and fair elections. The 2020 Presidential election was neither of these. I will be voicing my objection to the Electoral College certification on January 6th. Read the press release here:
<https://conta.cc/38yYKNB>

Background:

In the 2020 election, numerous states changed voter procedures without the approval of their respective state legislatures and in several instances extended the time for people to vote and return their mail-in ballots well past election day. There was also fraud, the removal of voter safeguards and signature verification standards, new rules for mail-in voting, technical issues with voting machines and other significant election integrity issues that likely influenced the official outcome of the Presidential Election. In sworn affidavits and under penalty of perjury, more than 900 witnesses have testified that people were seen filling out blank ballots, counting votes after they asked Republican poll watchers to leave, changing votes, processing and backdating bad ballots, delivering suspicious piles of ballots to counting rooms, and blocking, ignoring or intimidating Republican poll watchers.

Significant fraud accusations in the 2020 Presidential Election include:

- Affidavits tied to more than 600,000 ballots in Pennsylvania that claim there was no inspection of those ballots at the time they were recorded as votes.
- A former judge testified that more than 200,000 votes in Wisconsin were not valid.
- More than 1.9 million voters in Arizona are reported to have cast ballots without their signatures being verified.
- In Georgia, tens of thousands of ineligible voters are reported to have cast ballots.
- In Michigan, hundreds of thousands of fraudulent ballots are reported to have been counted.

Millions of voters concerned about election integrity deserve to be heard. I will object on January 6 on their behalf

Hawley Statement On Objecting During Electoral College Certification Process

“Following both the 2004 and 2016 elections, Democrats in Congress objected during certification of electoral votes in order to raise concerns about election integrity. They were praised by Democratic leadership and the media when they did. And they were entitled to do so. But now those of us concerned about the integrity of this election are entitled to do the same.”

“I cannot vote to certify the electoral college results on January 6 without raising the concerns of many Americans. Some states, particularly Pennsylvania, failed to follow their own state election laws. I cannot vote to certify without pointing out the unprecedented effort of mega corporations including Facebook and Twitter, to interfere in this election, in support of Joe Biden. At the least, Congress should investigate allegations of voter fraud and adopt measures to secure the integrity of our elections. But Congress has so far failed to act.”

“For these reasons, I will follow the same practice Democrat members of Congress have used in the past and object during the certification process on January 6 to raise these critical issues.”

Democrats have normalized violence and proved it to be an effective tool to advance an agenda.

They now have the control they've been pursuing and their first act is a social media purge.

Republicans have to end this attack on free speech.

Washington, DC - Today, U.S. Congresswoman Lauren Boebert (CO-03) released the following statement:

"We should take Democrats at their word when they say never let a crisis go to waste. Their hypocrisy is on full display with talks of impeachment, censure, and other ways to punish Republicans for false accusations of inciting the type of violence they have so frequently and transparently supported in the past," said Congresswomen Lauren Boebert. "And, once again, their false attacks go unchallenged. They accuse me of live-tweeting the Speaker's presence after she had been safely removed from the Capitol, as if I was revealing some big secret, when in fact this removal was also being broadcast on TV. They act as if Republicans created objections to the Electoral College certification out of thin air, when it was Democrats who objected in 2001, 2005 and 2017. They act as though a reference to the founding of our country and the bravery of upholding our Constitutional oath is criminal, which says a whole lot more about them than it does about me or any other Republican. The reality is that Joe Biden didn't condemn Antifa when he had a chance to, Kamala Harris spent much of the summer helping those arrested for violent behavior post bail and get back on the streets as quickly as possible, and Speaker Pelosi encouraged uprisings all over the country. I denounced the violence over the summer just as I did the recent events at the Capitol. I defended our Constitution and I always will. America will persevere because freedom always prevails. But let's get real—the far-left and their policies are causing harm to our country. I refuse to let their political machine write a narrative that millions of Americans know is false."

For more than a decade, leading Democrats and Hollywood elites have encouraged mob violence to achieve their political goals. Several examples include but are not limited to:

At least 30 people were killed in largely left-wing riots in the summer of 2020.

Months Ago, Democrats Blocked a Resolution Condemning Mob Violence
They also shut down a bill which would have given rioters longer prison sentences this summer and cracked down on political violence.
