ORDER

The Court held a status hearing in this matter on May 18, 2022, during which it accepted arguments of the parties pertaining to the pending competing Motions for Summary Judgment. The Court inquired if the parties would like a hearing dedicated to argument on the Motions for Summary Judgment. All parties declined, stating the Court could decide this matter based upon the motions submitted and supporting briefs. The Court concluded the hearing, stating it would allow the parties an opportunity to present argument at a hearing if they changed their minds.

For this reason, the court presents the parties an opportunity for an in-person hearing on June 17, 2022, at 10:30 a.m. if both Plaintiff and a Defendant or Intervenor agree. If the parties do not agree, the Court will dispose of the pending Motions for Summary Judgment based upon submission of the briefs. If both Plaintiff and a Defendant or Intervenor agree they must inform the Court on or before May 31, 2022.

It is so ORDERED.
SIGNED this 24th day of May, 2022.
