INTRODUCTION

8. ADMIT that the 2020 census results show population changes in different geographic areas, but otherwise ALLEGE that those census results speak for themselves, and DENY any characterization of them contrary to their express terms. Further ALLEGE that the United States and Wisconsin Constitutions require that congressional and state legislative districts be reapportioned on the basis of population data obtained in each decennial

U.S. census and that Wisconsin's current districts must be reapportioned prior to any future congressional or state legislative election. See U.S. Const., art. I, §§ 2, 4; U.S. Const. amend. XIV, § 2; Wis. Const., art. IV, § 3. In all other respects, ALLEGE that this paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

9. ADMIT that the 2020 census results show population changes in different geographic areas, but otherwise ALLEGE that those census results speak for themselves, and DENY any characterization of them contrary to their express terms. Further ALLEGE that the United States and Wisconsin Constitutions require that congressional and state legislative districts be reapportioned on the basis of population data obtained in each decennial U.S. census and that Wisconsin's current districts must be reapportioned prior to any future congressional or state legislative election. See U.S. Const., art. I, §§ 2, 4; U.S. Const. amend. XIV, § 2; Wis. Const., art. IV, § 3. In all other respects, ALLEGE that this paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

10. ALLEGE that the court decision referred to in the paragraph speaks for itself, and DENY any characterization of it contrary to its express terms. In all other respects, ALLEGE that this paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

11. ALLEGE that the court decision referred to in the paragraph speaks for itself, and DENY any characterization of it contrary to its express terms. In all other respects, ALLEGE that this paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

12. ALLEGE that the constitutional provisions and court decisions referred to in the paragraph speak for themselves, and DENY any characterization of them contrary to their express terms. In all other respects, ALLEGE that this paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

13. ADMIT that population changes have occurred in various districts since the 2010 census, but LACK knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of any other factual allegations or characterizations in the paragraph, and thus DENY. In all other respects, ALLEGE that this paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

14. ALLEGE that the United States and Wisconsin Constitutions require that congressional and state legislative districts be reapportioned on the basis of the 2020 census data prior to any future congressional or state legislative election. See U.S. Const., art. I, §§ 2, 4; U.S. Const. amend. XIV, § 2; Wis. Const., art. IV, § 3. In all other respects, ALLEGE that this paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

15. ADMIT.

16. ALLEGE that the constitutional provision referred to in this paragraph speaks for itself, and DENY any characterization of it contrary to its express terms. In all other respects, ALLEGE that the paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

Further ALLEGE that, in addition to the powers and duties of state officials and state courts, federal courts have the power to ensure that congressional and state legislative districts are lawfully reapportioned on the basis of the 2020 census data prior to any future congressional or state legislative election.

17. ADMIT that federal and state courts have concurrent jurisdiction to decide redistricting matters. ALLEGE that the court decision referred to in this paragraph speaks for itself, and DENY any characterization of it contrary to its express terms. In all other respects, ALLEGE that the paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

18. ALLEGE that the court decision referred to in this paragraph speaks for itself, and DENY any characterization of it contrary to its express terms. In all other respects, ALLEGE that the paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

19. ALLEGE that the court decision referred to in this paragraph speaks for itself, and DENY any characterization of it contrary to its express terms. In all other respects, ALLEGE that the paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

20. ALLEGE that the court decision referred to in this paragraph speaks for itself, and DENY any characterization of it contrary to its express terms. In all other respects, ALLEGE that the paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

21. ALLEGE that the paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

22. ALLEGE that the court decision referred to in this paragraph speaks for itself, and DENY any characterization of it contrary to its express terms. In all other respects, ALLEGE that the paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

23. ALLEGE that the order referred to in this paragraph speaks for itself, and DENY any characterization of it contrary to its express terms.

24. ALLEGE that the order and court decision referred to in this paragraph speak for themselves, and DENY any characterization of them contrary to their express terms.

ALLEGE that the census data referred to in this paragraph speak for themselves, and DENY any characterization of them contrary to their express terms. Further ALLEGE that the Wisconsin and United States Constitutions require that state legislative districts be reapportioned on the basis of the 2020 census data prior to any future state legislative election. See Wis. Const., art. IV, § 3; U.S. Const. amend. XIV. In all other respects, ALLEGE that this paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

101. ALLEGE that the census data referred to in this paragraph speak for themselves, and DENY any characterization of them contrary to their express terms. Further ALLEGE that the Wisconsin and United States Constitutions require that state legislative districts be reapportioned on the basis of the 2020 census data prior to any future state legislative election. See Wis. Const., art. IV, § 3; U.S. Const. amend. XIV. In all other respects, ALLEGE that this paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

102. ADMIT that Intervenor-Petitioners Citizen Mathematicians and Scientists reside in the indicated districts. ALLEGE that the census data referred to in this paragraph speak for themselves, and DENY any characterization of them contrary to their express terms. Further ALLEGE that the Wisconsin and United States Constitutions require that state legislative districts be reapportioned on the basis of the 2020 census data prior to any future state legislative election. See Wis. Const., art. IV, § 3; U.S. Const. amend. XIV. In all other respects, ALLEGE that this paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

103. ALLEGE that the Wisconsin and United States Constitutions require that state legislative districts be reapportioned on the basis of the 2020 census data prior to any future state legislative election. See Wis. Const., art. IV, § 3; U.S. Const. amend. XIV. In all other respects, ALLEGE that this paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

104. ADMIT.

105. ALLEGE that the Wisconsin and United States Constitutions require that state legislative districts be reapportioned on the basis of the 2020 census data prior to any future state legislative election. See Wis. Const., art. IV, § 3; U.S. Const. amend. XIV. In all other respects, ALLEGE that this paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

106. ALLEGE that the Wisconsin and United States Constitutions require that state legislative districts be reapportioned on the basis of the 2020 census data prior to any future state legislative election. See Wis. Const., art. IV, § 3; U.S. Const. amend. XIV. In all other respects, ALLEGE that this paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

107. ADMIT.

108. ADMIT that the Legislature and Governor still may enact a new district plan without court intervention. ALLEGE that the court decision and law review article referred to in this paragraph speak for themselves, and DENY any characterization of them contrary to their express terms. In all other respects, ALLEGE that the paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

109. ADMIT that the Legislature and Governor still may enact a new district plan without court intervention. ALLEGE that a new congressional and state legislative district plan needs to be in place no later than March 1, 2022, in order to enable staff of the Wisconsin Elections Commission to timely and effectively administer Wisconsin's next scheduled congressional and state legislative election. In all other respects, ALLEGE that the paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

110. ALLEGE that the court decision referred to in the paragraph speaks for itself, and DENY any characterization of it contrary to its express terms. In all other respects, ALLEGE that this paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

111. ADMIT the allegations in the first sentence of this paragraph. LACK knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of any other factual allegations or characterizations in the paragraph, and thus DENY.

Further ALLEGE that a new congressional and state legislative district plan needs to be in place no later than March 1, 2022, in order to enable staff of the Wisconsin Elections Commission to timely and effectively administer Wisconsin's next scheduled congressional and state legislative election. Additionally ALLEGE that, in light of the fact that 2020 census data was not delivered to Wisconsin officials until August 12, 2021, and in light of the current partisan divisions between the Wisconsin Legislature and the Governor, there is a meaningful possibility that the Legislature and the Governor will not be able to put a new district plan in place by March 1, 2022, without involvement of a court.

112. ADMIT that federal courts have been involved in Wisconsin's redistricting process in some previous decades. Further ADMIT that, during the 2010 redistricting cycle, Wisconsin had a Republican Governor and a Republican majority in both chambers of the Legislature. LACK knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of any other factual allegations or characterizations in the paragraph, and thus DENY.

113. ADMIT that the Legislature and Governor enacted a legislative district plan in 2011, and that some districts were revised by court order. LACK knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of any other factual allegations or characterizations in the paragraph, and thus DENY. In all other respects, ALLEGE that this paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

114. ADMIT the allegations in the first two sentences of this paragraph. Further ADMIT that the Legislature and Governor have not enacted a legislative district plan in every decennial cycle, and that federal courts have been involved in the redistricting process in some previous decades. ALLEGE that the court decisions referred to in the paragraph speak for themselves, and DENY any characterization of them contrary to their express terms.

Further ALLEGE that a new congressional and state legislative district plan needs to be in place no later than March 1, 2022, in order to enable staff of the Wisconsin Elections Commission to timely and effectively administer Wisconsin's next scheduled congressional and state legislative election. Additionally ALLEGE that, in light of the fact that 2020 census data was not delivered to Wisconsin officials until August 12, 2021, and in light of the current partisan divisions between the Wisconsin Legislature and the Governor, there is a meaningful possibility that the Legislature and the Governor will not be able to put a new district plan in place by March 1, 2022, without involvement of a court.

115. ADMIT that the partisan primary for the next state legislative election in Wisconsin is scheduled for August 9, 2022, and that, on or before March 15, 2022, the Wisconsin Elections Commission must send to each county clerk a Notice of Election that includes territorial information about any recent redistricting. See Wis. Stat. § 10.06(1)(f) (requiring a type A notice) and § 10.01(2)(a) (prescribing the content of a type A notice). Further ALLEGE that, independent of the March 15, 2022, notice deadline, a new legislative district plan needs to be in place no later than March 1, 2022, in order to enable staff of the Wisconsin Elections Commission to timely and effectively administer the partisan primary on August 9, 2022.

116. ALLEGE that the statute and court decision referred to in this paragraph speak for themselves, and DENY any characterization of them contrary to their express terms. Further ALLEGE that a new congressional and state legislative district plan needs to be in place no later than March 1, 2022, in order to enable staff of the Wisconsin Elections Commission to timely and effectively administer Wisconsin's next scheduled congressional and state legislative election. LACK knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of any other factual allegations or characterizations in the paragraph, and thus DENY. In all other respects, ALLEGE that this paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

117. ALLEGE that the United States and Wisconsin Constitutions require that congressional and state legislative districts be reapportioned on the basis of population data obtained in each decennial U.S. census and that Wisconsin's current districts must be reapportioned prior to any future congressional or state legislative election. See U.S. Const., art. I, §§ 2, 4; U.S. Const. amend. XIV, § 2; Wis. Const., art. IV, § 3. Further ALLEGE that, without regard to whether a new district plan is established by the Legislature and the Governor or by a court, such a plan needs to be in place no later than March 1, 2022, in order to enable staff of the Wisconsin Elections Commission to timely and effectively administer Wisconsin's next scheduled congressional and state legislative election. LACK knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of any other factual allegations or characterizations in the paragraph, and thus DENY. In all other respects, ALLEGE that this paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

118. ADMIT that the Petitioners and the Congressmen seek the relief described in this paragraph. ALLEGE that the court decisions referred to in this paragraph speak for themselves, and DENY any characterization of them contrary to their express terms. In all other respects, ALLEGE that this paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

119. ADMIT that the Intervenor-Petitioners Citizen Mathematicians and Scientists seek the relief described in this paragraph.

120. ADMIT that the Hunter Intervenors take the positions described in this paragraph. In all other respects, ALLEGE that this paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

121. ADMIT that the BLOC Intervenor-Petitioners seek the relief and take the positions described in this paragraph. In all other respects, ALLEGE that this paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

122. ADMIT that the Intervenor-Petitioners Citizen Mathematicians and Scientists take the positions described in this paragraph. LACK knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of any other factual allegations or characterizations in the paragraph, and thus DENY. In all other respects, ALLEGE that this paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

123. ADMIT.

124. ADMIT.

PETITIONERS' AND THE CONGRESSMEN'S STATEMENTS OF RELIEF SOUGHT

125. ADMIT that the Petitioners and the Congressmen seek the relief and take the positions described in this paragraph. LACK knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of any other factual allegations or characterizations in the paragraph, and thus DENY. In all other respects, ALLEGE that this paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

126. ADMIT that the Petitioners and the Congressmen seek the relief described in this paragraph, and that the Legislature and Governor still may enact a new district plan without court intervention. ALLEGE that a new congressional and state legislative district plan needs to be in place no later than March 1, 2022, in order to enable staff of the Wisconsin Elections Commission to timely and effectively administer Wisconsin's next scheduled congressional and state legislative election. Further ALLEGE that injunctive relief against the WEC Respondents is not necessary or appropriate at the present time. In all other respects, ALLEGE that the paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

127. ADMIT that the Petitioners and the Congressmen seek the relief and take the positions described in this paragraph. ALLEGE that the constitutional provisions and court decision referred to in the paragraph speak for themselves, and DENY any characterization of them contrary to their express terms. In all other respects, ALLEGE that the paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

BLOC INTERVENOR-PETITIONERS' STATEMENT OF RELIEF SOUGHT

128. ALLEGE that the 2020 Census results, the U.S. Constitution, and the Wisconsin Constitution speak for themselves, and DENY any characterization of them contrary to their express terms. Further ALLEGE that injunctive relief against the WEC Respondents is not necessary or appropriate at the present time. In all other respects, ALLEGE that the paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

129. ALLEGE that the population data in the 2010 and 2020 census results speak for themselves, and DENY any characterization of them contrary to their express terms. LACK knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of any other factual allegations or characterizations in the paragraph, and thus DENY. In all other respects, ALLEGE that this paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

130. ALLEGE that the population data in the 2010 and 2020 census results speak for themselves, and DENY any characterization of them contrary to their express terms.

LACK knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of any other factual allegations or characterizations in the paragraph, and thus DENY. In all other respects, ALLEGE that this paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

131. ALLEGE that the population data in the 2010 and 2020 census results speak for themselves, and DENY any characterization of them contrary to their express terms. LACK knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of any other factual allegations or characterizations in the paragraph, and thus DENY. In all other respects, ALLEGE that this paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

132. ALLEGE that the population data in the 2010 and 2020 census results speak for themselves, and DENY any characterization of them contrary to their express terms. LACK knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of any other factual allegations or characterizations in the paragraph, and thus DENY. In all other respects, ALLEGE that this paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

133. ADMIT that WEC is responsible for administering any election in accordance with the applicable district maps legally in effect at the time of the election. ALLEGE that the Wisconsin and United States Constitutions require that state legislative districts be reapportioned on the basis of the 2020 census data prior to any future state legislative election. See Wis. Const., art. IV, § 3; U.S. Const. amend. XIV. Further ALLEGE that injunctive relief against the WEC Respondents is not necessary or appropriate at the present time.

134. ALLEGE that the boundaries and populations of the existing congressional and state legislative districts speak for themselves, and DENY any characterization of them contrary to their express terms. In all other respects, ALLEGE that this paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

135. LACK knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of any factual allegations in this paragraph, and thus DENY. In all other respects, ALLEGE that the paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

136. ALLEGE that this paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

137. In response to BLOC Intervenor-Petitioners' request for relief in paragraph 137, the WEC Respondents ALLEGE as follows:

- The Wisconsin and United States Constitutions require that Wisconsin's state legislative districts be reapportioned on the basis of the 2020 census data prior to any future state legislative election.
- Without regard to whether a new legislative district plan is established by the Legislature and the Governor or by a court, such a plan needs to be in place no later than March 1, 2022, in order to enable staff of the Wisconsin Elections Commission to timely and effectively administer Wisconsin's next scheduled congressional and state legislative election.
- In light of the fact that 2020 census data was not delivered to Wisconsin officials until August 12, 2021, and in light of the current partisan divisions between the Wisconsin Legislature and the Governor, there is a meaningful possibility that the Legislature and the Governor will not be able to put a new district plan in place by March 1, 2022, without involvement of a court.
- The Wisconsin Elections Commission has no legal authority to create or alter district boundaries and no party has alleged any actual or imminent violation of the United States or Wisconsin Constitutions by any of the WEC Respondents. The WEC Respondents thus are not liable for BLOC Intervenor-Petitioners' costs, disbursements, or attorney's fees.

- Injunctive relief against the WEC Respondents is not necessary or appropriate at the present time.

138. ADMIT that the BLOC Intervenor-Petitioners seek the relief and take the positions described in this paragraph, and that the Legislature and Governor still may enact a new district plan without court intervention. ALLEGE that a new congressional and state legislative district plan needs to be in place no later than March 1, 2022, in order to enable staff of the Wisconsin Elections Commission to timely and effectively administer Wisconsin's next scheduled congressional and state legislative election. Further ALLEGE that the constitutional and statutory provisions referred to in the paragraph speak for themselves, and DENY any characterization of them contrary to their express terms. In all other respects, ALLEGE that this paragraph contains only legal conclusions to which no responsive pleading is required.

HUNTER INTERVENORS' STATEMENT OF RELIEF SOUGHT

139. In response to the Hunter Intervenor's request for relief in paragraph 139, the WEC Respondents ALLEGE as follows:

- The United States and Wisconsin Constitutions require that Wisconsin's congressional and state legislative districts be reapportioned on the basis of the 2020 census data prior to any future congressional or state legislative election.
- Without regard to whether a new congressional and state legislative district plan is established by the Legislature and the Governor or by a court, such a plan needs to be in place no later than March 1, 2022, in order to enable staff of the Wisconsin Elections Commission to timely and effectively administer Wisconsin's next scheduled congressional and state legislative election.
- In light of the fact that 2020 census data was not delivered to Wisconsin officials until August 12, 2021, and in light of the current partisan divisions between the Wisconsin Legislature and the Governor, there is a meaningful possibility that the Legislature and the Governor will not be able to put a new district plan in place by March 1, 2022, without involvement of a court.
- The Wisconsin Elections Commission has no legal authority to create or alter district boundaries and no party has alleged any actual or imminent violation of the United States or Wisconsin Constitutions by any of the WEC Respondents. The WEC Respondents thus are not liable for Hunter Intervenor's costs, disbursements, or attorney's fees.

INTERVENORS-PETITIONERS CITIZEN
MATHEMATICIANS AND SCIENTISTS' STATEMENT OF RELIEF SOUGHT

140. In response to the Intervenor-Petitioners Citizen Mathematicians and Scientists' request for relief in paragraph 140, the WEC Respondents ALLEGE as follows:

- The United States and Wisconsin Constitutions require that Wisconsin's congressional and state legislative districts be reapportioned on the basis of the 2020 census data prior to any future congressional or state legislative election.
- Without regard to whether a new congressional and legislative district plan is established by the Legislature and the Governor or by a court, such a plan needs to be in place no later than March 1, 2022, in order to enable staff of the Wisconsin Elections Commission to timely and effectively administer Wisconsin's next scheduled congressional and state legislative election.
