THIRD AMENDED SCHEDULING ORDER

This matter comes before the Court on the parties' joint consent motion to extend the deadlines for identifying experts and producing expert reports set forth in the Court's Scheduling Order for the trial on Plaintiffs' challenge to the congressional reapportionment plan. See ECF No. 180, at ¶¶ 4–5 & n.1. The Court grants the parties' joint consent motion and amends the scheduling order regarding the trial on the congressional reapportionment plan as follows:

4. Plaintiffs shall file and serve a document identifying by full name, address, and telephone number each person whom Plaintiffs expect to call as an expert at trial and certifying that a written report prepared and signed by the expert including all information required by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(2)(B) has been disclosed to the other parties by April 11, 2022 (Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(2)).¹ Plaintiffs' rebuttal experts are due on May 2, 2022.

5. Defendants shall file and serve a document identifying by full name, address, and telephone number each person whom Defendants expect to call as an expert at trial and certifying that a written report prepared and signed by the expert including all information required by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(2)(B) has been disclosed to the other parties by April 18, 2022 (Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(2)). Defendants' rebuttal experts are due on May 2, 2022.
6. Discovery shall be completed no later than August 12, 2022.
7. All motions other than (a) those relating to the admissibility of evidence at trial and (b) those to compel discovery, shall be filed no later than August 19, 2022.
8. No later than August 26, 2022, the parties shall file and exchange Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3) pretrial disclosures. Within seven (7) working days thereafter, a party shall file and exchange Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3) objections, any objections to use of a deposition designated by another party and any deposition counter-designations under Fed. R. Civ. P. 32(a)(6).
9. Motions in limine are due by September 2, 2022. Responses are due by September 9, 2022.
10. Pretrial Conference will be held on September 23, 2022.
11. This case will be called for bench trial on September 27, 2022.²
12. Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of law are due October 21, 2022.

² The trial will commence on Tuesday, September 27, 2022, to avoid conflict with the Jewish holiday of Rosh Hashanah. The case will continue from day to day until completed. The Panel doubts the parties will require 10 days of trial time because of the limited scope of the challenge to the congressional reapportionment plan. Should the trial run beyond Tuesday, October 4, 2022, the Panel will recess the trial on October 5, 2022 to avoid a conflict with the Jewish holiday of Yom Kippur.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.
