To assist the parties in presenting their joint brief by August 26, the Court wishes to clarify that both sides should assume that the trial will occur, as scheduled, on September 28. Trial preparation should move forward based on that strong assumption, although a main item for discussion at the September 15 pretrial conference will be whether the current trial setting is feasible. The three judges also wish to express their availability for the trial to proceed until as late as October 14 if the Court should determine that that is in the interest of a just resolution.

SIGNED this 24th day of August 2022.
