

inconvenience to the Court or any party, including Defendants. See Rotstain v. Mendez, 986 F.3d 931, 942 (5th Cir. 2021). We exercise our considerable discretion and GRANT permissive intervention, provided, however, that the intervenors will not be heard to complain of actions taken, decisions made, or opportunities lost before they sought to intervene. See generally 6 JAMES W. MOORE ET AL., MOORE'S FEDERAL PRACTICE § 24.10 (Matthew Bender 3d ed. 2021).

Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that the "Motion to Intervene by Eddie Bernice Johnson, Sheila Jackson-Lee, Alexander Green, and Jasmine Crockett as Plaintiff-Intervenors" (ECF No. 91) is GRANTED in part and DENIED in part.

So ORDERED and SIGNED on this 11th day of January 2022.

DAVID C. GUADERRAMA
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

And on behalf of:

Jerry E. Smith
United States Circuit Judge
U.S. Court of Appeals, Fifth Circuit

-and-

Jeffrey V. Brown
United States District Judge
Southern District of Texas