Order Regarding Costs and Attorney's Fees

Date of Order: 4/21/2023

Trial Court Case No. 3AN-21-08869CI

Subject to the application of AS 09.60.010(c)(1) and (d)(1), the parties shall bear their own costs and attorney's fees incurred in connection with the petitions for review to the supreme court. Parties wishing to file motions for costs and attorney's fees under Appellate Rule 508(e)(1) and AS 09.60.010(c)(1) and (d)(1) must do so by the close of business Friday, May 12, 2023. Moving parties are instructed to review relevant case law on constitutional claimant status, limitations of awards to constitutional claims upon which a claimant prevails, and potential allocations that may be necessary, and they are further directed to include a discussion of the relevant case law and its application to the facts and circumstances of their constitutional claims. Oppositions are due by the close of business Friday, June 2, 2023. Parties arguing that a moving party's attorney hours or hourly rates are excessive shall include information about their own attorneys' hourly rates and hours expended on the relevant issues. Replies are due by the close of business Friday, June 16, 2023. All filings shall be made by email and shall be served on other parties by email at the same time.

¹The Girdwood Parties filed a motion for attorney's fees in June 2022 in case number S-18419, which the court stayed pending its formal opinion. Now that the formal opinion has issued, the stay is lifted and the Girdwood Parties are directed to file a new motion by the stated deadline (but may attach copies of earlier affidavits if appropriate).
