

SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK
COUNTY OF ONONDAGA

-----X

In the Matter of the Application of

Index No.: 009200/2022

Rebecca Shiroll

-against-

The New York State Board of Elections,
The Oswego County Board of Elections, and
The Onondaga County Board of Elections, and John Mannion, candidate

ORDER

Respondents.

-----X

Upon the application of the Petitioner herein, the Court having conferenced the case this date, it is hereby:

ORDERED, that all preparations relating to the mandatory hand count of the ballots cast in the 50th Senate District shall immediately be halted and suspended by the respondent Boards of Elections, and it is

ORDERED, that pending the further order of this Court, the Respondent Boards of Elections are hereby enjoined from sorting handling or in any way removing ballots associated with the election for State Senate in the 50th Senate District from any of the secured voting containers that they were returned to the Board of Elections in (or that were returned with the voting machines) used on the days of early voting or the day of the election, and it is further

ORDERED, that pending the further order of this Court, the Respondent Boards of Elections, in cases where the ballots of this election have been removed from the voting machines and / or further removed from the secured containers in those machines, such ballots shall be sealed securely on a bipartisan basis, and said Boards are hereby enjoined from sorting handling or in any way removing ballots associated with the election for State Senate in the 50th Senate District from any envelopes so secured, that they are / may have been stored in.

DATED: November 21, 2022

ENTER:

_____, J.S.C.

Hon. Scott Del Conte, Justice of the Supreme Court

BY FURTHER ORDER OF THE COURT THIS 21ST DAY OF NOVEMBER, 2022, THE PRECEDING ORDER IS HEREBY VACATED, and the manual recount may proceed pursuant to Election Law § 9-208(4).

Dated: November 21, 2022

Hon. Scott J. Del Conte, J.S.C.