RETRIEVED FROM DEMOCRACYDOCKET.COM

The Wisconsin Legislature, through its counsel, moves for leave to file the attached non-party amicus brief in opposition to the petition for original action in Clarke v. Wisconsin Elections Commission, No. 2023AP1399-OA.

1. This action challenges the constitutionality of Wisconsin's existing state legislative district boundaries, put in place by this Court's order in Johnson v. Wisconsin Elections Commission, 2022 WI 19, 401 Wis. 2d 198, 972 N.W.2d 559 (Johnson III). Petitioners ask the Court to declare the court-ordered boundaries unconstitutional, draw new boundaries, and order special elections. Pet. at p. 43-45.

2. The Wisconsin Legislature is the bicameral legislative branch of Wisconsin's government. Wis. Const. art. IV, § 1. It has the constitutionally-assigned responsibility to create Wisconsin's state legislative districts. Id. art. IV, § 3.

3. This Court has allowed the Legislature and its leaders to participate in previous redistricting actions, and the Legislature has a statutory right to participate in litigation defending its laws. See, e.g., Johnson v. Wis. Elections Comm'n, 2021 WI 87, ¶6, 399 Wis. 2d 623, 967 N.W.2d 469 (noting intervention by Legislature); State ex rel. Reynolds v. Zimmerman, 22 Wis. 2d 544, 548, 126 N.W.2d 551 (Wis. 1964) (intervention by the Senate President pro tem and Assembly Speaker); Democratic Nat'l Committee v. Bostelmann, 2020 WI 80, ¶13, 394 Wis. 2d 33, 949 N.W.2d 423 (discussing Wis. Stat. §803.09(2m)).

4. This motion and the attached amicus brief satisfy the requirements of Wis. Stat. §809.19(7). The Legislature's brief explains why this Court must deny the petition for original action, which asks the Court to overrule its precedent without justification, reinterpret constitutional provisions that have not changed since this Court last interpreted them, ignore the doctrine of laches, all with the effect of enlarging this Court's judicial power beyond recognition.

5. The motion is timely, in compliance with the Court's order of August 15, 2023, inviting the filing of non-party amicus briefs.

WHEREFORE, the Wisconsin Legislature requests that this Court grant its request for leave to file the attached amicus brief.

Dated this 22nd day of August, 2023.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Kevin M. St. John
