DEFENDANTS’ AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

Defendants assert the following affirmative defenses. By pleading these defenses, Defendants do not assume the burden of proving any fact, issue, or element of a cause of action where such burden belongs to Plaintiffs. Moreover, nothing stated herein is intended to or shall be construed as a concession that any particular issue or subject matter is relevant to Plaintiffs’ allegations.

1. Plaintiffs’ Complaint fails, in whole or in part, to state a claim against Defendants upon which relief can be granted.
2. Plaintiffs’ lawsuit is not ripe because Plaintiffs filed their Complaint before the expiration of the NYVRA’s mandatory 90-day safe harbor period following the Town Board’s adoption of an NYVRA Resolution on March 15, 2024.
3. Plaintiffs’ claims against Defendants are barred by the doctrines of waiver, estoppel, and laches.
4. Plaintiffs’ claims are barred in whole or in part because the NYVRA – if read in the manner that Plaintiffs allege – would violate the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution and Article I, Section 11 of the New York Constitution.

5. Plaintiffs' claims are barred in whole or in part because Plaintiffs' requested remedies violate the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution and Article I, Section 11 of the New York Constitution by the impermissible use of race.

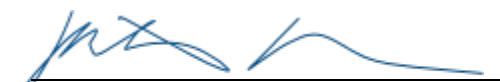

6. Plaintiffs' claims are barred and the Complaint should be dismissed for failure to join a necessary party.

Defendants have not knowingly or intentionally waived any applicable affirmative defenses and reserve the right to assert and rely upon such affirmative defenses as may become available or apparent during discovery. Defendants further reserve the right to amend their Answer and Affirmative Defenses accordingly and to correct any errors or omissions.

WHEREFORE, the Town and Town Board respectfully demand judgment as follows: (a) a judgment in favor of the Town and Town Board and against Plaintiffs dismissing the Complaint in its entirety; and (b) such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.
