Defendants.	)

In their renewed motion for injunctive relief, Plaintiffs seek to enjoin the issuance of a certificate of election for the June 11, 2024 special election for Ohio's 6th Congressional District. However, the parties have not provided the Court with any additional information that would provide a timeline in which such a certificate would issue following the election. Accordingly, the parties are ordered to supplement the record with information detailing when such a certificate would ordinarily issue following an election. Any such supplement shall be filed by May 20, 2024.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
