CONSENT MOTION TO VOLUNTARILY DISMISS DEFENDANT DOUG WELBORN

NOW INTO COURT, through undersigned counsel, come Plaintiffs who file this Consent Motion seeking to voluntarily dismiss Defendant Doug Welborn, with prejudice.

Defendant Doug Welborn was sued in his capacity as the Clerk of Court of East Baton Rouge Parish. Defendant Doug Welborn filed a Motion to Dismiss arguing, in part, that his role was ministerial in nature and therefore he is not a proper party in this litigation.¹ Without comment on Defendant's specific arguments, Plaintiff and Defendant's counsel have conferred and agreed to dismiss Mr. Welborn from this litigation, each party to bear their own costs.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs ask this Court to dismiss Defendant Doug Welborn, with prejudice, each party to bear their own costs.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ David Lanser
